In 1897 Mr. Thos. A. Buncle also acquired the old-established and well-known Firm of Lees & Wilson, Twine Manufacturers, Edinburgh.

The united Firms control all the processes of manufacture from the raw material to the finished article. Mr. Buncle, Junr., is now ably assisting his Father in the management of the business.

Steady growth of Trade necessitated from time to time additional building operations and the installing of much new Machinery.

The firms have further improvements in view, their aim being ever to stand in the forefront amongst manufacturing concerns.

RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND SERVICES.

LETTERS.

Not exceeding 2 oz. . . . . 1½d.
For every additional 2 oz. or less . . ½d.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

N.B.—Every letter should bear the name and address of the sender in order to ensure its return in case of non-delivery.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width, or 1 foot in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office.

POST CARDS.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on every post card is 1d., on every reply post card 2d.

2. Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label not exceeding 2 inches long and ¾ inch broad, bearing the name and address at which the card is to be delivered, and a similar label bearing the name and address of the sender; engravings, illustrations, drawings, and photographs, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card. A post card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by 2¾ inches. An inland post card is transmissible for abroad if the additional postage is made by postage stamps.

Private cards used as post cards must be made of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the thickest official post card, and not thinner than the material used for the thinnest. They may not exceed 5½ in. in length by 3½ in. in width or less than 4 in. in length by 2¾ in. in. width.

If any of these rules be infringed, the card ceases to be a post card, and is treated as a letter, and liable to the usual charges on delivery.

PRINTED PAPERS.*

Not exceeding 2 oz. . . . . ½d.
For every additional 2 oz. or less . . ½d.
Limits: in weight, 2 lb.; in size, as letters.

Every copy not exceeding 6 oz. . . . 1d.

If two or more copies are enclosed in a single packet, each copy will be liable to the same postage as if posted separately.

No writing or printing is permitted, other than the words 'with compliments,' name and address of sender, request for return if undelivered, and a reference to a page.

* The reduction in the rate for printed papers will be accompanied by some limitation of the hours of posting at the reduced rate, in accordance with the recommendation of the Committee on National Expenditure.

Newspapers not registered as such at G.P.O., and Christmas or special issues of registered newspapers, are treated as book packets.

Limits: in weight, 2 lb.; in size, as letters.

It is also desirable that a parcel should bear the name and address of the sender on the cover, but not in such a position as to be mistaken for the address of the parcel. The parcel should not be left until the weight, size, and postage have been tested by the officer who accepts it. The stamps should be affixed by the sender.

Greatest length	3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined	6 ft. 0 in.

For example:—A parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in its longest dimension, may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth, or, if shorter, may be thicker.

The rates of postage are—

Up to 2 lb.	6d.
2 lb. to 5 lb.	9d.
5 lb. to 8 lb.	1s. 0d.
8 lb. to 11 lb.	1s. 3d.

No parcel may exceed 11 lb. in weight.

A Customs declaration must be made in the case of parcels for the Channel Islands.

Parcels for the Isle of Man are liable to Customs examination, but the sender is not required to furnish a declaration of contents. Parcels containing dutiable articles are liable to be detained by the Customs Officers at the port of entry until the Customs regulations are complied with.

Parcels for the Irish Free State are received from the public under the same general conditions as to weight and size, and at the same rates of postage, as parcels for all other parts of Great Britain and Ireland. For Customs purposes, the sender is required to make an accurate declaration of the nature and value of the contents and other particulars upon an adhesive form which may be obtained at any Post Office.

To offices where letters may be addressed 'to be called for,' parcels may also be so addressed. Such parcels are kept for three weeks, at the end of which period, if not called for, they are returned to the sender.

For a parcel which is not registered the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2, without payment of any fee, provided that the parcel is posted in the manner prescribed for the posting of parcels by the regulations for the time being, and a certificate of posting is obtained from the officer receiving the parcel, and produced when required. The certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to the officer, who will sign and return it to him The parcel must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

The following services are provided by the Post Office:—

Express throughout (Local Service).

The charge is 6d. for every mile or part of a mile from the Office of delivery to the address. On packets weighing more than 1 lb. a weight fee of 3d. is charged, together with a further fixed charge of 1d. for each article beyond one. If the sender desires, a cab or other special conveyance may be used throughout, the actual fare or cost of the conveyance must be paid in addition to the mileage fee. The weight fee is not charged in such a case.

All charges must be prepaid in postage stamps, to be affixed to a form provided by the Post Office, and should be handed in over the counter, or to an officer authorised to receive it. In no case may it be placed in a letter box. The words 'Express Delivery' must be boldly and legibly written on the cover, and in the case of a letter the cover must be marked with a broad perpendicular line from top to bottom both on front and back.

The addressees of letters and parcels not marked for Express Delivery may have them delivered by special messenger in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman, on making application in proper time on a form provided for the purpose and prepaying the usual express fee of 3d. per mile on the first packet and a further fixed charge of 1d. for every additional ten or less number of packets.

Local Service.—At the General Post Office, and at the undermentioned Branch and Sub-Offices, letters, parcels, etc., are accepted for immediate delivery by Express Messenger in any part of Edinburgh and Leith or suburbs, see page 1612.

From the General Post Office, Edinburgh, delivery is effected at all hours day and night, except between 11.30 p.m. on Saturdays and midnight on Sundays. From 10 p.m. till 7 a.m. on week-days letters should be handed in at the North Bridge entrance.

Letters, etc., for Express Delivery from the General Post Office, may also be handed in at any of the other Local Offices, but the delivery will be less expeditious in these cases, inasmuch as the articles have first to be conveyed by ordinary collection to the G.P.O., from which they are expressed to destination. Thus an express letter or parcel handed in at Fountainbridge Post Office before 9.50 a.m. will reach the G.P.O. at 10.30 a.m., and delivery by Express Messenger will immediately follow.

The Express Service may also be used for obtaining letters in advance of the ordinary deliveries by Postmen.

Single-Letters conveyed by Railway.—Railway letters not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, for transmission by train or steamship, may be handed in to any post office from which express delivery is made, for immediate conveyance to the railway stations, at the above rates.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTER BY RAILWAY.

Certain Railway Companies have entered into agreement with the Postmaster-General to accept and convey by the next available train or steamboat single inland post letters, not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address or to be transferred there to the nearest post office letter box for delivery by postman. The letter must be taken to the parcel booking office, and when that office is shut to the passenger booking office. The charge for such a letter is 4d., in addition to postage at the ordinary rate.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN SERVICES.

LETTERS.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on letters for all Foreign Countries (except the United States of America and Tangier) is as follows :—

For the first oz.	2½d.
For each additional oz. or less	1½d.

From the United Kingdom to British Possessions generally, Egypt, the United States of America, and British Postal agencies in Morocco, the prepaid rates of postage are as follows :—

For the first oz.	1½d.
For each additional oz. or less	1d.

Dutiable articles, if sent by letter post, may be subjected to fine or confiscated if the place of destination so prescribes.

Letters posted unpaid, or paid only in part, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, are returned to the writers. Letters so posted for other countries are forwarded, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are, as a rule, forwarded by the first mail despatched.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town and province added in English or French.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in breadth or depth.

INSURANCE OF LETTERS.

Letters for certain places abroad can be insured, full information of which can be ascertained by applying at any Post Office.

POST CARDS.

The prepaid rate of postage on every post card for a destination outside the United Kingdom is 1½d., and on every reply post card 3d.

PRINTED AND COMMERCIAL PAPERS.

Printed Papers include newspapers and periodical works, books, pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing engravings, photographs, pictures, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, advertisements of various kinds, printed, engraved, lithographed, or mimeographed.

Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), way bills, bills of lading, invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of insurance and other public companies, all kinds of manuscript music, the manuscript of books and other literary works, letters and post cards of old date, which have already served their original purpose, and pupils' exercises either in original or with corrections, but without any comment on the work, and other papers of a similar description.

The products of the copying press and typewriter are not admitted at the rate for printed papers; nor, as a rule, are printed papers, the text of which has been modified after printing either by hand or mechanical process, or marked so as to constitute a conventional language.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on printed papers for all places abroad is ½d. per 2 oz. The postage on commercial papers is 2½d. for the first 10 oz., and ½d. per 2 oz. thereafter. If not fully prepaid, double the deficiency will be charged on delivery; if unpaid, they will be stopped.

Printed papers from places abroad, of which the postage is insufficiently prepaid, will be charged on delivery with double the deficient postage within a limit of a 1d. per 2 oz.; and on insufficiently paid commercial papers the charge to be made will not exceed 5d. up to 10 oz., and 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

SAMPLE POST.

The use of the Sample Post to the colonies and foreign countries generally is restricted to bona fide trade samples of merchandise. Packets containing goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens, cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom is 1d. for the first 4 oz., and ½d. per 2 oz. thereafter. Insufficiently paid packets are forwarded to places abroad, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency. If unpaid, they will be stopped. Insufficiently paid sample packets from places abroad will be charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d. up to 4 oz., and of 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and suchlike articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, may be sent, provided that they are bona fide samples without saleable value, and are packed and guarded so as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined. Packets containing liquids, glass, greasy substances, colouring powders, and live bees can be sent by sample post from the United Kingdom to countries in the Postal Union. Deleterious liquids or substances may be sent abroad for medical examination or analysis, by sample post only. Explosives are absolutely prohibited.

A packet or samples sent to any British Colony or Possession, to Egypt, or non-Union country, must not exceed 24×12×12 in., but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union, except Egypt, a packet must not exceed 12×8×4 in., unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is 12×6 in.

The limit of weight for packets of samples for British Colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is, as a rule, 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 oz.

PARCEL POST.

The sender of a parcel is required to fill up a Customs House declaration, giving an accurate statement of the contents and value, date of posting, and sender's name and address. The net weight of the various articles in a parcel should, if possible, be given, and any other particulars which would facilitate the assessment of Customs duty which is collected on delivery.

INSURANCE OF PARCELS.

Foreign and Colonial parcels cannot be registered, but they may be insured under certain conditions, which may be ascertained at any Post Office. Insured parcels have all the safeguards of the registration system, and, subject to the Post-Office regulations, compensation will be paid if they are lost or damaged in the Post.

The general conditions are much the same as for Inland Parcel Post. The dimensions allowed are generally 3½ feet in length, breadth, or depth, and 6 feet in length and girth combined. The limit of weight is 11 lb., except in the case of Paraguay, which is 7 lb. Articles in parcels must be carefully packed. Moreover, such is taken into account in dealing with claims for compensation, and all parcels must be sealed.

AIR MAIL SERVICE BETWEEN LONDON AND PARIS.

An Air Mail Service is in operation between London and Paris for the conveyance of correspondence addressed to Paris, France generally, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, etc. Particulars of special fee and other information can be obtained by inquiry at any Head Post Office.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where inland letters, post cards, book packets, and parcels may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than £1, and that the letters and halfpenny packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

Letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad is 3d.; and to some foreign countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, it being left in those cases to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. Coin, jewellery, or precious articles may not be sent through the post to certain countries of the Postal Union; no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing such articles can be accepted for registration.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an officer of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If an article marked 'registered' be dropped into the letter-box, directed to any place in the United Kingdom, it will be liable to a registration fee of 6d. (less any amount prepaid for registration), instead of the ordinary fee, and if posted containing coin, watches, or jewellery without being registered, will be treated in like manner.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and at the sub-offices fifteen minutes before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 6d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each despatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, as it can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered, valuable articles are exposed to risk.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

The ordinary registration fee for each inland letter, parcel, or other postal packet is 3d., exclusive of postage. With a further 3d. the sender may obtain advice of delivery.

Inland packets marked 'Registered' or containing coin or jewellery, if found in a letter-box undergo compulsory registration (6d.), carrying no compensation.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.—These fees (which in each case include the ordinary registration fee of 3d.), and the respective limits of compensation, are as follows:—3d. on £5, 4d. on £20, and so on at the rate of 1d. for every additional £20, up to a limit of 1s. 11d. for £400.

Rules.

General Conditions.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a postal packet containing anything not legally transmissible by post; or a packet not posted in the manner prescribed.

Compensation given in respect of the loss or damage of coin shall not in the case of any letter exceed the sum of £5, and must be enclosed in one of the Registered Letter envelopes sold by the Post Office, and the packet is tendered for transmission by Registered Letter Post, and a certificate of posting, bearing an acknowledgment that the fee for registration and compensation has been paid, must be obtained.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a postal packet containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid; or containing any article of an exceptionally fragile character, or any other article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post; or containing a perishable article where the damage arises from natural decay, and the postal packet is delivered without undue delay; or which is not marked 'Fragile, with Care.'

Where a postal packet (other than a parcel) is marked 'Fragile, with Care,' may be slightly delayed in transit, as it may be diverted from the quickest to some other route to ensure greater safety.

Definition of Terms.

The term 'postal packet' means and includes any letter packet, post card, halfpenny packet, book, newspaper, parcel, or other article transmissible by the Post in accordance with the regulations in force for the time being. The term 'money' means and includes coin and paper money. The term 'coin' means and includes coin of all kinds whether or not current in the United Kingdom or elsewhere. The term 'paper money' means and includes notes of the Bank of England and Ireland or of any bank of issue in the United Kingdom, currency notes and notes current in any Foreign State or British Possession; money orders and postal orders; unobliterated postage or revenue stamps; exchequer bills, bank post bills, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, credit notes which entitle the holder to money or goods, and all orders and authorities for the payment of money, whether negotiable or not; bonds, coupons, and securities for money, whether negotiable or not. The term 'watch,' the cases of which are entirely or mainly composed of gold or silver, and any article of a like nature which, apart from the workmanship, has an intrinsic or marketable value. The term 'jewellery' means and includes gold or silver in a manufactured state, that is to say, a state in which value is added to the raw material by skilled workmanship; and in this definition are included any coins used or designed for purposes of ornament; diamonds and precious stones. The term 'United Kingdom' includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

RE-DIRECTION.

All letters containing instructions as to the re-direction of letters, etc., should have written on the envelope 'RE-DIRECTION OF LETTERS.' Such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, etc., for a person temporarily leaving his home, unless the house be left uninhabited, or of letters, etc., addressed to clubs, hotels, boarding-houses, or lodgings; or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter-box or to a common agent.

Letters, post cards, printed papers, and newspapers are not liable to additional postage for re-direction, whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided that the letters are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened; but if re-posted later than the day after delivery, are charged at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters or packets.

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction. But re-directed parcels are not subjected to additional postage if the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office, and that the re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence.

A registered letter or packet, when re-directed, should be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter. No additional registration fee will be charged if the correspondence is presented for re-registration not later than one day after delivery; but if it is presented after that time it will be treated as freshly posted, and a fresh registration fee will be payable.

Notices of removal and applications for re-direction of letters, etc., must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the local office and the General Post Office, or from the postman. A separate notice must be filled up for parcels and telegrams. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

When business premises are temporarily left unoccupied—as, for example, during local holidays—re-direction is only undertaken on payment of a fee of 5s. for each period. Re-direction of letters for the first year after removal is undertaken free. For re-direction during the second and third year after removal a fee of 1s. a year is charged, and 5s. a year thereafter.

Foreign and Colonial.—The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, etc., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign country or colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

Registered letters on being re-directed may not be dropped into a letter box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom are liable to additional postage at the inland rate for each re-direction.

Letters for commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen in the army or navy, on active service, are exempt from any charge for re-direction, and also to the usual regulations as to time of re-posting. Letters, etc., returned to the senders that they may rectify or complete the address, are not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but as liable to fresh postage.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3, 10s. per annum; and if for a private bag, £1, 10s. additional; and if for parcels, an additional fee; for delivery from one address to another (removal excepted), £1, 10s.; and for private delivery of registered letters only, a fee of 15s. a year for once daily, or £1, 10s. a year for calling more than once.

Letter cards, 2d. each; 100 for 15s.

Health Insurance Stamps of the following denomination, viz., 4d., 5d., 7d., 8d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 1s. 6d., 1s 8d., are on sale at Head and Branch Post Offices. Any other denomination mentioned above can be obtained on two days' notice.

Unemployment Insurance Stamps of denominations, 4½d., 5d., 8d., 8½d., 9½d., 10d., 1s. 3d., and 1s. 7d., are on sale at Post Offices.

Health and Unemployment Insurance Stamps are respectively available only for payment of contributions under the National Insurance Acts, 1911 to 1920, and under the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1922, and not for any purpose for which postage stamps have hitherto been used and must continue to be used.

Inland Revenue Stamps.—Stamps issued solely for Inland Revenue purposes, whether impressed upon paper or parchment, or adhesive, can be obtained through all Money Order Offices in England and Wales, and through certain selected offices in Scotland and Ireland, and postmasters are instructed to keep a stock of those classes of stamps for which there is a demand. The same regulation applies also to the supply of Fee Stamps of every kind.

Embossed or impressed postage stamps cut out of envelopes, post cards, letter cards, newspaper wrappers, or telegram forms may be used as adhesive stamps in payment of postage, provided they are not imperfect, mutilated, or defaced in any way. Embossed or impressed Inland Revenue Stamps cannot be used in payment of postage, and stamps indicating the payment of a registration fee may only be used for registered correspondence.

Stamps bought from the public—

Persons wishing to sell postage stamps must fill up a form, obtainable at any post office, stating the value of the stamps, and the name, address, and occupation of the vendor. The form and stamps should then be handed in at any Money Order Office and an acknowledgment obtained. An order for the face value of the stamps, less 5 per cent. commission, will be sent by post from the chief office of account, London, Dublin, or Edinburgh. No smaller amount than £1 worth will be purchased from one person.

Ordinary Postage and Revenue Stamps available for certain documents.—Ordinary adhesive Postage and Revenue Stamps may, as a rule, be used for the purpose of denoting Stamp Duties up to a limit of 2s. 6d., where adhesive stamps are admissible for that purpose.

One or more Postage and Revenue Stamps may be used to make up the duty.

Stamping of Documents, etc.—On the prepayment of the proper duty, any executed or unexecuted documents or printed forms can be left at all Money Order Offices to be forwarded for stamping, without charge for transmission, provided that the value of the stamp on any document or form does not exceed the limit which may be in force at the Money Order Office concerned. Executed documents can, as a rule, be reclaimed the second day after being left.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or other article, or any article having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, nor can any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, any living creature, except bees, or anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office. Prohibited articles, if tendered for transmission, will be refused, or, if detected in transit, detained. They are liable to be dealt with in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, and the sender is in some cases liable to prosecution.

The transmission by post of any postal packet containing any advertisement or ticket relating to a lottery at home or abroad, or any advertisement of a betting house at home or abroad, or any advertisement issued by or on behalf of any person at home or abroad, offering to tell fortunes, is also prohibited.

The transmission by letter post of coin, gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, etc., is prohibited in most countries; for further particulars see P.O. Guide.

The holder of an Inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that it be paid through a bank, even although not originally intended.

Further rules and regulations are on the forms issued.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order between all Offices authorised to transact Telegraph and Money Order business, with the exception that at those Offices which forward but do not deliver Telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued but not paid.

The telegraph charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the postmaster of the office of payment, and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee with regard to the Order must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate.

In other respects, Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary Money Orders.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders are issued and paid at most post offices in the United Kingdom.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each Order :—

Broken amounts, whether the Order is made payable in the United Kingdom or elsewhere (excepting Canada), may be made up by affixing postage stamps not exceeding 5d., and not exceeding three in number, to the face of the Order.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and is recommended to fill in the name of the office of payment as a precaution in case the Order should be lost or stolen. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the Order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should tear off and retain the counterfoil. Its production will facilitate inquiry if the Order should be lost.

If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a banker; and if the name of a banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker.

Remittances to the Colonies, and to other places abroad, for sums exceeding £1, 1s., may be made by Money Order.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 1s. for twelve words, including the address, and 1d. for every additional word.

Telegrams handed in on SUNDAY will be charged 6d. extra.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered at a charge of 4d. per copy in addition to one penny for each word in the address of the copy.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission covers the cost of delivery within three miles, or within the town postal delivery when that extends for more than three miles. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within three miles only.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile, or any part thereof, the charge being calculated from the limit of the free delivery.

The sender is responsible for the porterage, and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if practicable, state the distance and pay the porterage in advance. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid.

The cost of a reply to a telegram, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within twelve months. If the Form be not used, it may within the same period be sent to the Secretary, G.P.O., and the value will be refunded to the sender. A Reply Form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay any message.

By ringing up 'Telegrams,' telegraph messages may be sent direct to the Telegraph Room at the G.P.O. for onward transmission.

Additional income tax at the rate of 2s. for every pound is chargeable on that part of the income arising from securities which the Treasury are willing to purchase.

Earned Income.—In case of earned income, a deduction of one-tenth of the amount of such income is allowed, but not exceeding in any case £200.

Reduced Rate of Tax.—The first £225 of the taxable income of any individual shall be charged to income tax at half the standard rate.

Income from wounds and disability pensions is exempt from income tax. (§ 16, Finance Act, 1919.)

Deductions.—If individual is married and wife living with him or wholly maintained by him, he is entitled to a deduction of £225, and in any other case to a deduction of £135.

In respect of children being under age of 16, or any child over that age who is receiving full-time educational instruction, relief given in respect of one child, to the amount of income tax upon £36, and in respect of any child in excess of one from tax upon £27. No relief given in respect of any child entitled to an income exceeding £40 a year excluding any scholarship or bursary.

A deduction of £60 may be claimed by a widower or widow in respect of female relative taking charge of their children, or by a widower in respect of housekeeper. A deduction of £60 may be claimed by an unmarried person who has living with him and maintains at his own expense either his mother (being a widow or living apart from her husband), or some other female relative, for the purpose of having the charge and care of any brother or sister.

If individual proves that he maintains at his own expense any dependent relative whose total income does not exceed £50, he is entitled to a deduction of £25 in respect of each relative, and a like deduction shall be made in the case of a claimant who by reason of old age or infirmity is compelled to depend upon the services of a daughter resident with and maintained by him or her.

Deduction is allowed, when claimed, of any annual premium (not exceeding one-sixth part of the claimant's income from every source) paid for insurance, or deferred annuity, on the claimant's own or his wife's life, to any insurance company in existence on 1st November 1844, or registered pursuant to Act 7 and 8 Vict. c. 110; or of any annual payment made from a salary or stipend under Act of Parliament to a widows' or children's fund.

Note.—Limited to (1) premiums of not more than 7 per cent. of actual sum assured, and (2) premiums payable for securing any other benefits, more than £100 in all.

The allowance will be deducted from the amount of tax, and will be calculated at the following rates—

	Policies or Contracts effected— On or before 22nd June 1916.	After 22nd June 1916.
When the total income does not exceed £1000	Half the standard rate.	Half the standard rate.
When the total income exceeds £1000, but does not exceed £2000	Three-fourths the standard rate.	Half the standard rate.
When the total income exceeds £2000	The full standard rate.	Half the standard rate.

Provision is made for deduction for diminished value by wear and tear of machinery or plant used in any trade, manufacture, adventure, etc., the profits or gains of which are chargeable under the rules of Schedule D, Income Tax Act, 1918.

Landlords in Scotland are entitled (either by abatement or by repayment) to a deduction from Sched. A assessment in respect of such rates, taxes, assessments, and public burdens, as may be charged upon them and not charged upon landlords in England.

In the case of an assessment on lands (inclusive of the farmhouse and farm buildings), under Sched. A the assessment is to be reduced by one-eighth part; and in the case of houses or buildings distinct from farms, the assessment is to be reduced—

(a) where the amount of the assessment does not exceed £40, by a sum equal to one-fourth;

(b) where the amount of the assessment exceeds £40 and does not exceed £100, by a sum equal to one-fifth; and

(c) where the amount of the assessment exceeds £100 by £20, together with a sum equal to one-sixth part of the amount by which the assessment exceeds £100. Where the tenant is occupier and has undertaken to bear the cost of repairs, the assessment is reduced by such a sum not exceeding the amount of the authorised reduction as may be necessary to reduce the amount of the assessment to the amount of rent payable by him.

Occupiers of lands for the purposes of husbandry only are entitled, on proof to the satisfaction of the commissioners, to an abatement of Sched. B duty proportionate to the deficiency of their profits or gains.

Person sustaining loss in any trade or profession carried on by him, either solely or in partnership, or in farming of lands, may, on application to the commissioners through the district surveyor of taxes within six months after the year of assessment, obtain repayment of so much of the Income Tax actually paid on his aggregate income as represents the tax on income equal to his loss.

No allowance in respect of earned income, and no deductions from assessable income shall be given or made, and income tax on the first £225 of the taxable income shall not be chargeable at the reduced rate, and no relief shall be given in respect of Insurance premiums in the case of any individual who is not resident in the United Kingdom, provided that this provision shall not apply in the case of any individual who satisfies the Commissioners of Inland Revenue that he or she

(a) is a British subject; or

(b) is a person who is, or has been, employed in the service of the Crown, or who is employed in the service of any missionary society or in the service of any native State under the protection of His Majesty; or

(c) is resident in the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands; or

(d) has previously resided within the United Kingdom and is resident abroad for the sake of his or her health, or the health of a member of his or her family resident with him or her; or

So, however, that no such allowance, deduction, reduction of rate, or relief as aforesaid, shall be given so as to reduce the amount of the income tax payable by that individual below an amount which bears the same proportion to the amount which would be payable by him by way of tax if the tax were chargeable on his total income from all sources, including income which is not subject to income tax charged in the United Kingdom as the amount of the income subject to income tax so charged bears to the amount of his total income from all sources.

§ 7. Revenue Act, 1911. (1) Where a husband is required under subsection (2) of section 72 of the principal Act (Finance (1909–10) Act, 1910), to make a return of his total income from all sources for the purpose of supertax and part of that total income is the income of his wife, the Special Commissioners may, if for any reason they consider that they are unable to obtain a satisfactory return of the wife's income from the husband, require the wife to make a return of her income, and in that case the wife shall be under the like obligation to make a return under the said section as if she were not married, and the husband shall be relieved from any obligation to make such a return as respects the income of the wife. (2) Where supertax is charged in a case where the wife has been required to make a return under the foregoing provision, such part of the total sum payable in respect of the supertax as bears the same proportion to that total sum as the wife's income bears to the total income in respect of which supertax is charged shall be assessed on and recoverable from the wife in lieu of the husband. (3) This section shall have effect with respect to the supertax charged for the year beginning the sixth day of April nineteen hundred and nine and for any subsequent year as if it had been contained in the principal Act, and the provisions of that Act with regard to the assessment and collection of supertax, and the penalties for failure to make a return, shall apply accordingly.

Husband and wife have right to claim relief separately, but the income of both are to be aggregated in estimating the amount to be repaid or allowed in respect of the allowances or deductions.

‡ Or (under B and D) 1s. 6d. or other rates as case may be. Income tax for the last six months of the income tax year was increased by 40 per cent.

§ Or (under B and D) other rates as case may be.

Note.—The annual value shall run from 24th May instead of 5th May.

Earned Income.

Earned income is derived from active carrying on of trades, professions, and employments, and from certain pensions paid by an employer. Interest, dividends, rents, and such like are not earned income.

Employers are bound to give statements of all sums paid to employees.

Every person is liable to a penalty for failure to make a return of his income when required, whatever his income may be.

Appeals for repayment on account of diminished income are generally restricted to new business not over three years set up at beginning of the year of taxation, and to businesses ceased. In the latter case repayment for three years may be claimed if assessments exceeded total profits.

Allowances for wear and tear not made in one year may in certain cases be claimed in the following year.

A clergyman paying rent for his house may be allowed at most one-eighth of the rent for rooms used mainly and substantially for the purposes of his duty. Where clergyman is in the occupation of a dwelling-house but pays no rent, he shall be deemed to pay a rent equal to the annual value of the dwelling-house as assessed to income tax under Schedule A. Annual value may be treated as earned income of clergyman.

The time for penalties and increase of assessments is extended to three years.

A firm is assessable in one sum for all profits, but the allowances to an individual may be claimed by a partner for himself and allowed for him to the firm.

Quarterly Assessment.

Weekly wage earners are assessable to and chargeable with income tax in respect of their wages in each quarter of the year instead of in the whole year. Weekly wage earners are those persons who are employed by way of manual labour and who receive wages which are calculated by reference to the hour, day, week, or any period less than a month at whatever intervals the wages may be paid, or who receive wages however calculated which are paid daily, weekly, or at any less intervals than a month. This part, however, does not apply to persons employed as clerks, typists, draftsmen, or any other similar capacity.

SUPERTAX.

In addition to the income tax, there shall be charged, levied, and paid in respect of the income of any individual the total of which from all sources exceeds £3000 an additional duty of income tax (referred to as supertax) at the following rates :—

In respect of excess over £2000—
For every £1 of first £500 of excess			.	1s. 6d.
,	£1 of next £500		.	2s. 0d.
,,	£1	,, £1000	.	2s. 6d.
,,	£1	,, £1000	.	3s. 0d.
,,	£1	,, £1000	.	3s. 6d.
,,	£1	,, £1000	.	4s. 0d.
,,	£1	,, £1000	.	4s. 6d.
,,	£1	,, £12,000	.	5s. 0d.
,,	£1	,, £10,000	.	5s. 6d.
For every £1 of remainder of excess			.	6s. 0d.

Finance Act, 1912, § 6.—In the case of the death of a person liable to supertax during any year for which super tax is charged, a part only of the year's supertax shall be payable proportionate to the part of the year which has elapsed before the date of the death.

DEDUCTION OF INCOME TAX.

1. Dividends and interest from the public funds, foreign loans, foreign or colonial companies, interest of money borrowed on the security of rates, and official salaries and pensions, are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate in force at the date of payment.

2. Mortgage interest, feu-duties, and ground annuals are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate or rates in force during the period in which they have been accruing due.

Note.—No. 2 forms a guide for the deduction of Income Tax from dividends or interest payable out of the profits or gains of public companies in the United Kingdom.

§ 34 of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1915, provides that deductions in respect of income tax under Schedule A on lands and heritages in Scotland made from any rent, interest, or payment due for the period ending on the 15th day of May shall be made at the rate of the tax in force at the commencement of that period.

MINERAL RIGHTS DUTY.

Excess Mineral Rights Duty is also charged at the rate of 60 per cent.
